Background Information - Job-specific

UNOPS is the implementing partner for the Project "Enhancing Capacities and Preparedness of Montenegro's Judiciary for EU Integration", funded by the European Union (EU). The project aims to enhance the rule of law by increasing Montenegro's judicial system's independence, efficiency, and accountability and supporting the implementation of Action Plans for EU Accession Chapters 23 and 24. The EU has allocated €2,000,000 through the Instrument for Pre-Accession Assistance 2022 (IPA), with the project spanning 24 months.

Key project activities include optimising processes within judicial institutions, conducting training programs, and improving the judicial infrastructure. Technical documentation for constructing a judicial complex in Podgorica will also be prepared. The Ministry of Justice (MoJ) is the primary national partner, benefiting from the project's outcomes alongside other rule of law institutions.

Functional Responsibilities

The ICT Specialist will, in collaboration with other team members, be responsible for developing the methodology for assessing the ICT capacities in the judiciary institutions of Montenegro, the conduct of the assessment, and provision of support in the implementation of initial activities and improvement of ICT capacity of MoJ and judiciary.

The methodology will be developed with the MoJ and other national stakeholders. It will entail visits to selected locations to collect information and data about the existing conditions of ICT in the MoJ and its administration, courts, prosecution, and prisons. The ICT assessment will encompass analysis of existing software and hardware solutions, in coordination with the MoJ and with the involvement of all relevant beneficiary institutions.

Key Responsibilities:

- Develop the methodology for the assessment of the information systems and ICT infrastructure in the judiciary through a consultative process.
- Conduct site visits to the MoJ, Judicial and Prosecutorial Councils, courts, State prosecution offices, and other locations defined by PM and beneficiary, in coordination with the MoJ and with the support of the project team.
- Conduct desk research and legal analysis related to the conduct of the ICT assessment.
- In collaboration with beneficiary institutions, collect data on existing ICT infrastructure (hardware and software).
- Conduct a detailed analysis of the judicial system's existing software and hardware solutions, identifying areas for future investments.
- Prepare a Comprehensive Assessment Report, including recommendations for improvement of information systems and ICT infrastructure.
- Provide subject-matter advice for future improvement, modernisation and ICT investment in the judiciary.
- Contribute to the development of technical specifications related to ICT and participate in the evaluation of offers.
- Contribute to project reports and plans, risk, issue and quality management.
- Contribute to the identification of lessons and knowledge management.

- Perform other duties as required and in line with the scope of services.

Education/Experience/Language requirements

Education

- An Advanced University Degree is required, preferably in Information Technology, or related fields.
- University Degree (bachelor's degree / first level) with a combination of two additional years of relevant professional experience may be accepted instead of the Advanced University Degree.
- A driving license is an asset.

Work Experience

- A minimum of five years of experience in ICT systems and infrastructure analysis is required.
- Experience with assessments, projects, and actions related to the judicial system and high-security facilities is an advantage.
- Experience in Montenegro or the Western Balkans region is an asset.
- Experience engaging with governmental institutions, international organisations and donors is an asset.

Language Requirements

Background information – UNOPS Serbia

The United Nations Office for Project Services (UNOPS) is an independent United Nations (UN) organisation since 1995 (Resolution 48/501, 1994), which succeeded two decades of its operations as a part of the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) since 1974 when it was established.

The mission of UNOPS is to help people build better lives and countries achieve peace and sustainable development. As a part of the United Nations family, and as the only self-financed UN organisation, UNOPS is committed to UN values and private sector efficiency.

In Serbia, UNOPS has been active since 2000 and the organisation provides support in conducting demanding socio-economic reforms and facilitating accession to the European Union. The projects focus on sustainable local development, good governance, the rule of law, social cohesion, environment and emergency response. The projects are implemented with funding from the European Union (EU), the Governments of Switzerland, Sweden, Serbia, and the UN organisations.

UNOPS Serbia Multi-Country Office (RSMCO) also covers Montenegro and North Macedonia, as well as Bosnia and Herzegovina, where the need for support and potential engagements are being assessed. The work of UNOPS and the projects it implements is contextualised within the broader Sustainable Development Goals frameworks and objectives of the countries of its operations.
